TFXT OF

Covenant as It Will Be Presented to Plenary Session.

ARTICLES REVISED

Seat of League Established at Geneva.

WASHINGTON, April 28. The state sented at the meeting. text of the revised coverant of the shall be summoned by the president league of nations, as it will be pre- of the United States of America. sented tomorrow to the plenary sesinsertions showing changes made in the covenant as originally drafted and made public

The covenant of the league of na-

In order to promote international cooperation and to achieve international peace and security, by the acceptance of obligations not to resort to war, by the prescription of open, just and honorable relations between nations, by the firm establishment of the understandings of international law as to actual rule of conduct among governments, and by the maintenance of justice and a scrupulous respect for secretariat shall be appointed by the organized peoples with one another, the high contracting parties agree to this covenant of the league of nations.

(In the original preamble the last sentence read, "adopt this constitu-tion" instead of "agree to this coven-

Article One—The original members that capacity at all meetings of the of the league of nations shall be those assembly and of the council. of the signatories which are named in the annex to this covenant and also such of those other states named in the annex as shall accede without reservation to this covenant. Such accessions shall be effected by a dec-

Any fully self-governing state, dominion or colony not named in the annex, may become a member of the league if its admission is agreed by wo-thirds of the assembly, provided that the seat of the league shall be esthat it shall give effective guarantees tablished elsewhere, of its sincere intention to observe its. All positions under scribed by the league in regard to its and women. military and naval forces and arma-to do, withdraw from the league, pro-vided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under this cupied by the league or its officials or the time of its withdrawal.

new, embodying ("This article is with alterations and additions the old document.)

Article Two of a council with permanent secre-(Originally this was a part of article one. It gives the name assembly delegates.")

The assembly shall consist of representatives of the members of the

The assembly shall meet at stated intervals and from time to time as may be decided upon. The assembly may deal at its meet three representatives. (This embodies parts of the origin-throughout the revised draft.) Article Foor

The council shall consist of representatives of the United States of America, of the British empire, of France, of Italy and of Japan, together with representatives of four other members of the league. These four members of the league shall be selected by the assembly from time to constituted to advise the council on the execution of the provisions of arti-

time in its discretion. Until the ap-ligation shall be fulfilled. pointment of the representatives of the four members of the league first selected by the assembly, represenatives of (blank) shall be members of the council.

sentation on the council.

The council shall meet from time be decided upon.

The council may deal at its meetthe peace of the world.

Any member of the league not represented on the council shall be in-vited to send a representative of matf that member of the league.

At the meetings of the council, each member of the league represented on the council shall have one vote, and may have not more than one represen-

(This embodies that part of the orginal members of the council.

All matters of procedure at meetings of the dispute.

(Virtually unchanged except appointment of committees to investilated by the assembly or by the council and may be decided by a majority of the members of the league repre-

The first meeting of the assembly department made public tonight the and the first meeting at the council sion of the peace conference at Paris, and council except where otherwise This text follows, with parenthetical provided is new. The other two paragraphs originally were included in ar ticle four.) Article six:

The permanent secretariat shall be established at the seat of the league. The secretariat shall comprise a secretariat general and such secretaries and staff as may be required. The first secretary-general shall be the person named in the annex; thereafter the secretary general shall be appointed by the council with the approval of the majority of the assemcouncil with the approval of the ma-The secretaries and the staff of the secretariat shall be appointed by the secretary general with the approval of the council. The secretary general shall act in

The expenses of the secretariat shall in accordance with the apportionment of the expenses of the International Bureau of the Universal Postal Union.

(This replaces the original article laration deposited with the secretariat five. In the original the appointment within two months of the coming into of the first secretary general was left force of the covenant. Notice thereof to the council, and approval of the shall be sent to all other members of majority of the assembly was not required for subsequent appointments.) Article

> The seat of the league is established in Geneva. The council may at any time decide international obligations and shall ac- tion with the league, including the sec- members of the league agree that they cept such regulations as may be pre- retariat, shall be open equally to men

Representatives of the members of Any member of the league may, after when engaged on the business of the two years' notice of its intention so league shall enjoy diplomatic privi-

covenant shall have been fulfilled at by representatives attending its meetings shall be inviolable. (Embodying parts of the old articles article seven. It provides more speci- 5 and 6, this article names Geneva in thereof. fically the method of admitting new stead of leading the seat of the league members and adds the entirely new to be chosen later and adds the proviparagraph providing for withdrawal sion for changing the seat in the fu- such efforts are successful, a stateleague. No mention of ture. The paragraph opening positions ment shall be made public giving such withdrawal was made in the original to women equally with men is new.) Article 8:

The members of the league recog-The action of the league under this nize that the maintenance of a peace covenant shall be effective through the requires the reduction of national ar-

The council taking account of the proper in regard thereto. to the gathering of representatives of geographical situation and circum-tht members of the league, formerly stances of each state, shall formulate sented on the council may make public geographical situation and circumreferred to merely as "the body of plans for such reduction for the consideration and action of the several governments. Such plans shall be subject to reconsideration and revision at least every ten years.

After these plans shall have been adopted by the several governments, the league, or at such other place as not be exceeded without the concurrence of the council.

The members of the league agree of war is open to grave objections. The At meetings of the assembly, each council shall advise how the evil efmember of the league shall have one fects attendant upon such manufacote, and may have not more than ture the munitions and implements of war necessary for their safety. The members of the league underal article one, two and three with only minor changes. It refers to "members of the league," where the term "high contracting parties" originally was grams and the condition of such of is followed their industries as are adaptable to warlike purposes.

> inal article 8, but is rewritten to make mendation as to its settlement. it clearer that armament reduction plans must be adopted by the nations this article refer the dispute to the embodied in this covenant assembly. The dispute shall be so re-cle 1 and 8 and on military and naval to the council. questions generally league. In case of any such aggression council and of a majority of the other or in case of any threat or danger of members of the league, exclusive in case of any threat or danger of members of the league, exclusive in circumstances.

Certain communities formerly be the parties to the dispute, shall have longing to the Turkish empire have

(Virtually unchanged.)

Article 11: immediately affecting any of the mem- dispute. bers of the league or not, is hereby deof the assembly, the council may whole league and the league shall take number of members of the league to eral shall, on the request of any mem- added.) be selected by the assembly for rep- ber of the league, forthwith summon a meeting of the council.

It is also declared to be the fundato time as occasion may require and at mental right of each member of the nants under articles twelve, thirteen religion subject only to the mainten east once a year, at the seat of the league to bring to the attention of the or fifteen, it shall ipso facto be deemed since of public order and morals, the league, or at such other place as may assembly or of the council any circum- to al relations which threaten to disturb ings with any matter within the sphere either the peace or the good underof action of the league or affecting standing between nations upon which ance of all trade or financial rela- military and naval bases and of milipeace depends.

(In the original it was provided that the 'high contracting parties reserve tionals of the covenant breaking state of territory and will also secure equal vited to send a representative of matthe right to take action," etc., where the specially affecting the interests the revised draft reads "the league commercial or personal intercourse bemerce of the league. shall take any action, etc.")

Article Twelve: The members of the league agree them any dispute likely to lead to a rupture, they will submit the matter

Except where otherwise expressly award of the arbitrators shall be made provided in this covenant, decisions at within a reasonable time, and the re- further, that they will mutually sup-IS all the members of the league reprein six months after the submission some provisions of the original are cate particular matters shall be regu- eliminated for inclusion in other articles.)

Article Thirteen

between them which they recognize to be suitable for submission to arbitration and which cannot be satisfactorily settled by diplomacy, they will submit the whole subject matter to arbitration. Disputes as to the interpretation of a treaty, as to any question The other two par- of international law, as to the existence of any fact which if established would constitute a breach of any international obligation, or as to the extent and nature of the reparation to be adopted for any such breach, are declared to be among those which are generally suitable for submission to arbitration. For the consideration of any such dispute the court of arbitration to which the case is referred shall to the dispute or stipulated in any convention existing between them.

against a-member of the league which complies therewith. In the event of any failure to carry out such an award. the council shall propose what steps should be taken to give effect thereto.

Article Fourteen: The council shall formulate and subbe borne by the members of the league adoption plans for the establishment mit to the members of the league for of a permanent court of international an international character which the may also give an advisory opinion upon any dispute or question referred to it by the council or by the assembly (Unchanged except for the addition the last sentence.)

Article Fifteen: If there should arise between members of the league any dispute likely tlement of the dispute, to lead to a rupture, which is not sub-All positions under, or in connec. initted to arbitration as above, the will submit the matter to the council Any party to the dispute may effect such submission by giving notice of the league and officials of the league secretary general, who will make all necessary arrangements for a full investigation and consideration thereof. For this purpose the parties to the dispute will communicate to the secretary-general, as promptly as possi statements of their case, all the relevant facts and papers; the council as the council may deem appropriate If the dispute is not thus settled, the council either unanimously or by instrumentality of an assembly and maments to the lowest point consist- majority vote shall make and publish ent with national safety and the en- a report containing a statement of ent with the terms thereof, and solforcement by common action of inter- the facts of the dispute and the recom- emply undertake that they will not which is placed under the direction their offenses.

> The council shall endeavor to effect facts and explanations regarding the dispute, terms of settlement thereof.

a statement of the facts of the dispute and of its conclusions regarding the same.

If a report by the council is unani mously agreed to by the members thereof other than the representatives gations. of one or more of the parties to the dispute, the members of the league occasion may require, at the seat of limits of armanent therein fixed shall agree that they will not go to war with any party to the dispute which complies with the recommendations of

> by the members thereof, other than curing the maintenance of peace. the representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute, the membrs of the league reserve to themselves the right to take such action as they which as a consequence of the late shall consider necessary for the maintenance of right and justice > is claimed by one of them, and is ed by peoples not yet able to stand by found by the council, to arise out of themselves under the strenuous cona matter which by international law ditions of the modern world, there is solely within the domestic juris should be applied the principle that diction of that party, the council shall the well being and development of ferred at the request of either party able effect to this principle is that the Chennaged except for the insertion of the words "Article 1")

Article 10:

The members of the league undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league represented on the league in case of any such aggression; council and of a majority of the other economic condition and other situation of the stage of the people, the geometric properties of the league represented on the league in case of any such aggression; council and of a majority of the other economic condition and other situation of the territory, its league.

Slovakia, Ecuador, France, Greece, tutelage should be exercised by them as mandatories on behalf of the latter as mandatories on behalf of the latter as mandatories on behalf of the league.

The character of the mandate must differ according to the stage of development of the people, the geomant.

Slovakia, Ecuador, France, Greece, tutelage should be exercised by them as mandatories on behalf of the league.

The character of the mandate must differ according to the stage of development of the people, the geomant.

Argentine republic, Chile, Colombia, Dermark, Netherlands, Norway, Perusular Dermark, Netherlands, Net

the same force as a report by the coun- reached a stage of development where cil concurred in by all the members their existence as independent nations thereof other than the representatives can be provisionally recognized sub-Any war or threat of war whether of one or more of the parties to the ject to the rendering of administrative

(The paragraph specifically exclud-With the approval of the majority clared a matter of concern to the ing matters of 'domestic jurisdiction' stand alone. The wishes of these the assembly, the council may whole league and the league shall take from action by the council is new. In communities must be a principal conname additional members of the league any action that may be deemed wise the last sentence the words "if con-whose representatives shall always be and effectual to safeguard the peace curred in by the representatives of datory.

Other peoples, especially those of with like approval may increase the gency should arise, the secretary gen sented on the council" etc., have been central Africa, are at such a stage

Article Sixteen: Should any member of the league ritory under conditions which resort to war in disregard of its cove- guarantee freedom of conscience or have committed an act of war prohibition of abuses such as stance whatever affecting internation against all other members of the slave trade, the arms traffic and the league, which hereby undertake im- liquor traffic and the prevention of mediately to subject it to the sever-

tween the nationals of the covenantbreaking member of the league and the nationals of any other state, whe- Pacific Islands, which, owing to the that if there should arise between ther a member of the league or not, sparseness of their population or their them any dispute likely 10 lead to a lt shall be the duty of the council small size or their remoteness from in such case to recommend to the seveither to artibration or to inquiry by eral governments concerned what ef- geographical contiguity to the territory iginal article three designating the or- the council, and they agree in no case fective military or naval forces the of the mandatory and other circum The to resort to war until three months members of the league shall severally stances can be best administered un

The members of the league agree, tioned in the interests of the indigenany meetings of the assembly or of the port of the council shall be made port one another in the financial and date, the mandatory shall render to council shall require the agreement of within a reasonable time, and the reunder this article, in order to mini- erence to the territory committed to mize the loss and inconvenience resulting from the above measures, and that they will mutually support one administration to be exercised by the another in resisting any special measures aimed at one of their number by agreed upon by the members of the he covenant breaking state, and that league, be explicitly defined in each they will take the necessary steps to case by the council. . The members of the league agree afford passage through their territory that whenever any dispute shall arise to the forces of any of the members of the league which are cooperating to the annual reports of the mandatories protect the covenants of the league.

Any member of the league which has ciolated any covenant of the league mandates. may be declared to be no longer a member of the league by a vote of the council concurred in by the representatives of all the other members of in describing nations to be given manthe league represented thereon.

(Unchanged except for the addition of the last sentence.)

Article Seventeen:

In the event of a dispute between a member of the league and a state agreed upon the members of the league which is not a member of the league. or between states not members of the league, the state or states not members of the league shall be invited to in their own countries and in all counbe the court agreed on by the parties accept the obligations of membership tries to which their commercial and in eastern European Russia to Kinel, in the league for the purpose of such dispute, upon such conditions as the The members of the league agree council may deem just. If such invithat they will carry out in full good tation is accepted, the provisions of ganizations; (B) undertake to secure faith any award that may be rendered articles twelve to sixteen inclusive just treatment of the native inhabiand that they will not resort to war shall be applied with such modifications as may be deemed necessary by the council.

Upon such invitation being given council shall immediately instithe tute an inquiry into the circumstances (Only minor changes in language.) of the dispute and recommend such action as may seem best and most effectual in the circumstances.

If a state so invited shall refuse to accept the obligations of membership in the league for the purposes of such The court shall be competent dispute, and shall resort to war against justice. The court shall be competent a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league, the provis-to hear and determine any dispute of a member of the league. parties thereto submit to it. The court able as against the state taking such action

If both parties to the dispute, when so invited refuse to accept the obliga-tions of membership in the league for endeavor to take steps in matters of the purposes of such dispute, the council may take such measures and make such recommendations as will prevent hostilities and will

(Virtually unchanged.)

Article Eighteen: Every convention or international engagement entered into henceforward by any member of the league, shall be forthwith registered with the secrepublished by it. No such treaty or eral treaties if the parties to such treat other? Not very appealing the international engagement shall binding until so registered.

(Same as original article 23:)

Article Nineteen The assembly may from time time advise the reconsideration may forthwith direct the publication members of the league of treaties which have become inapplicable, and the consideration of international cona settlement of any dispute, and if ditions whose continuance might endanger the peace of the world

(Virtually the same as original article 24.)

Article Twenty:

The members of the league severally agree that this covenant is accepted necessary or desirable. as abrogating all obligations or underhereafter enter into any engagements of the league.

inconsistent with the terms thereof. In case members of the league shall. before becoming a member of league, have undertaken any obligations inconsistent with the terms of this covenant, it shall be the duty of encourage and promote the establish-

article 25.)

Article Twenty-one.

Nothing in this covenant shall deemed to affect the validity of inter-The assembly may deal at its meet. The members of the league agreed ings with any matter within the sphere that the manufacture by private enport which is unanimously agreed to ings like the Monroe doctrine for several areas of manufacture and implements.

(Entirely new.) Article Twenty-two

To those colonles and territories, war, have ceased to be under the sovereignty of the states which formerly If the dispute between the parties governed them and which are inhabit (This covers the ground of the orig- so report, and shall make no recom- such peoples form a sacred trust of civilization and that securities for the The council may in any case under performance of this trust should be

The best method of giving practicundertake this responsibility and who Wales, India, China, Cuba, (Unchanged except for the insertion bly all the provisions of this article are willing to accept it, and that this Guatemale Haiti Hedday. their geographical position can best advice and assistance by a mandatory until such time as they are able to that the mandatory must be respon sible for the administration of the terthe establishment of fortifications or tions, the prohibition of all intercourse tary training of the nations for other between their nationals and the na- than police purposes and the defense

There are territories such as south west Africa and certain of the South the centers of civilization or their paragraph providing for increase in after the award by the arbitrators or contribute to the armaments of forces der the laws of the mandatory as inthe membership of the council is new.)

Article Five:

In any case under this article the league.

contribute to the armaments of forces der the laws of the mandatory as into be used to protect the covenants of tegral portions of its territory subject to the safeguards above menous population. In every case of man its charge.

The degree of authority, control, or mandatory shall, if not previously constituted to receive and examine and to advise the council on all mat ters relating to the observance of the

This is the original article 19, vir tually except for the insertion of the words "and who are willing to accept" datories.)

Article Twenty-three: Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of international conventions existing or hereafter to (A) will endeavor to secure and maintain fair and humane conditions of laindustrial relations extend, and that purpose will establish and mainthe necessary international ortain tants of territories under their control; (C) will entrust the league with along the northern branch of the general supervision over the exe-trans-Siberian, where the anti-Bol-witnesses declared that the launch ap-cution of agreements with regard to shevik forces have taken Glazov, east parently collided with something just the traffic in women and children, and of Viatka. A third column is moving before reaching the Nevada and they the traffic in opium and other danger. Westward midway between these two had a clear view of what was laking ous drugs: (D) will entrust the league with the general upervision of the Kamar river. This stream is naviga- were playing on the scene trade in arms and ammunition with ble and flows in the Volga and with There were fourteen persons in the the countries in which the control of the disappearance of the ice, which is launch, one being rescued, according this traffic is necessary in the com- now breaking up, should afford easy to police reports, mittee interest; (E) will make provis- transportation to Simbirsk, which is ion to secure and maintain freedom apparently the destination of the cenof communication and of transit and tral column. equitable treatment for the commerce of all members of the league. In this international concern for the prevention and control of disease. (This replaces the original article 20, and embodies part of the articles 18 and 21. It eliminates a spe cific provision formerly made for a rection of the league all international one hand and hold a bunch of bloodties consent. All such international bureaus and all commissions for the work done by the members of the interest hereafter constituted shall be the intermountain country, for months placed under the direction of the in Europe. These heroes are here to league.

In all matters of international interest which are regulated by general home with the months of hell past conventions but which are not placed under the control of international bureaus or commissions, the secretariat of the league shall, subject to the consent of the council and if desired by the parties, collect and distribute all relevant information and shall render bridges and trench systems way out shevik governments and in the French any other assistance which may be the expenses of the secretariat the ex- of the men of the Ninety-first into an excellent showing against the bopenses of any bureau or commission the enemy lines in practically all of

with the matter after the first two mate the job of a doughboy alone he the sentences added.)

Article Twenty-five:

(Same as the original, except that tion of amendments, with the last sentence added.) Annex to the Covenant

Signatories of the treaty of peace. United States of America, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, British Empire, Canada, Australia, South Africa, New South Wales, India, China, Cuba, Czecho-

A permanent commission shall be of all members of the league. In this connection the special necessities of the regions devastated during the war of 1914-1918 shall be in mind: (F) will bureau of labor and adds the clauses 27 (B) and (C).

Article Twenty-four

ment and cooperation of duly author- what was demanded from these husky to procure its release from such oblihaving as purposes improvement of a whimper and finished it in a man-(Virtually the same as original health, the prevention of disease and ner that attracted attention and the mitigation of suffering throughout praise throughout the entire American prevent a speedy restoration of not the world.

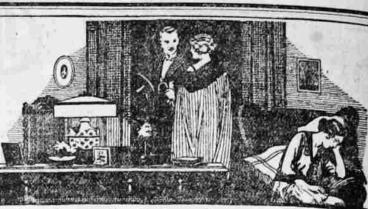

(Entirely new.)

majority of the league instead of is three fourths is required for ratifica-

One-Original members eague of nations.

placen brought to Audenarde Novemleague of nations (blank) Two-First secretary general of the nant.)

Is it that rash which makes you unpopular?

Don't be denied the pleasure your friends enjoy simply because of a skin that is marred by unsightly blemishes. Here's the thing to do-give the Resinol treatment a fair trial. Use the ointment and soap jointly. Let the healing medication contained in both, correct and gradually overcome the trouble that is robbing you of a clear complexion and a good time. For a free trial of son? The combined use of this comment and soap is especially soit, and einterest write Resi-nal, Baltimore, Md. Fer sale at all dengants.

PARIS, April 28. (By the Associated Press)—Admiral Kolchak's troops bor for men, women and children both have advanced along the southern the battleship Nevada were reported branch of the trans-Siberian railroad by the police to have been drowned for only forty miles east of Samara, ac- river. cording to dispatches received by the. The police said that, in the absence Russian commissioners in Paris from of an official statement by the naval Omsk, the capital of Admiral Kol- authorities, they based the report on Slower advance is also being made the the cries of drowning sailors. These forces and has reached Saropul on the place because the navy searchlights

BELGIAN CROSS

FORT D. A. RUSSELL, Wyo., April 27.—How would you like to build bridges in front of the front lines in France, where shells were falling like There shall be placed under the di- hail and it was necessary to dig with chak's government.

Well, this was exactly the kind of regulation of matters of international 316th engineers, men from Utah and day undergoing physical examinations for discharge, and Tuesday night will see them on their way to Utah and sen's plan for the neutrals to supply

Six members of this unit were dec parently making little headway. As orated for bravery under fire and two yet he has been unable to communi of them have been awarded the Amer- cate with Nikolai Lenine, the bolshiican distinguished service cross, vik premier of Russia, and the opposition to the plan among the Russians tions. Their work of constructing here as representatives of the anti-bolahead of the Wild West division is said press is becoming more pronounced by the officers to have been lessely by the officers to have been largely The council may include as part of responsible for the successful rushes that the armies which are now making

They were called the doughboy en-(Same as article 22 in the original, gineers. If a person can truly estiknows that he indeed had his hands full. But adding to it the engineers The members of the league agree to work, which in itself a he-man porexpeditionary forces.

Standing prominently among the six Amendments to this covenant will for personal bravery is an Ogden boy. front and along the two branches of take effect when ratified by the mem- Sergeant William Wilkinson or 2108 the trans Siberian railroad is regarbers of the league whose representatives compose the council and by a like a Belgian war cross awarded him the provisional government of north majority of the members of the council and by a like a Belgian war cross awarded him the provisional government of north majority of the members of the council and by a like a Belgian war cross awarded him majority of the members of the league by order of King Albert, and fastened ern Russia and his associates, as proof whose representatives compose the as-there by an officer second in command that transportation facilities are fall of the Belgian army. Bill, as his bun-Such amendments shall (the word kies call him, is a real example of NOT apparently omitted in cable western manhood. He won't say much ly enough to meet attacks. transmission) bind any member of the about his conquests abroad, but his league which signifies its dissent pals will tell of a little incident where ber 2, 1918, to build a bridge for the therefrom, but in that case it shall crease to be a member of the league.

(Same as the original except that with his first. That's how husky Heines division troops. with his fists. That's how husky he

Bill had charge of a platoon on the line and frequently was called upon to build systems up ahead. Following ings within seventy-five yards of the was also, on November 3, a member of enemy front lines, he was commended to accretain the condition of the fourth for bravery by Major General William set of bridge crossings at the escal H. Johnston, commanding the Ninety-first division, and recommended by him for decoration to King Albert. The award for this arrived shortly after. Here is a copy of the official order, f recommendation made by General

Johnson to King Albert: "Recommended for the Belgian war cross, Sergeant William A. Wilkinson brave

(The annex was not published with original document of the cove-

NEW YORK, April 28.-Thirteen sailors returning in a navy launch to when the launch sank in the Hudson information from persons who said they witnessed the sinking and heard

PARIS, April 28.-Dr. Fridtjof Nanfood to Moscow and Petrograd is ap-The Russian representatives insist sheviki should not be handicapped by movements which tend to encourage the Lenine troops. The bolshevik pre-mier reported willingness to recognize foreign debts and to grant concessions in consideration of receiving food supplies and ceasing hostilities is taken by the Russians here as a distinct admission of weakness. They urge that plans for supplying food to bolshevis Russia would only prolong the ascer-dancy of Lenine and his colleagues and mal conditions.

The defeat of the bolsheviki at Kier ing the bolsheviki and that they are no longer able to shift their armies quick-

"This platoon was placed in a built ing approximately seventy-five yards from enemy trenches. While here be conducted himself so as to set a good example to men of his plateon. a patrol conducted by his lieutenan set of bridge crossings at the escale At this time thes at Audennarde. further bridges had not been installed by any of our troops. He was at all times in danger of being shot if he allowed himself to be seen from the Ger man lines or by snipers which infestel the island. He conducted himself bravely and obtained valuable informa-

"Recommendation made for Belgian war cross, by Major General William n. Johnston, commanding the Ninety first division.

Read the Classified Ads. Read the Classified Ads